Academic Terms

Istanbul Medipol University divides the calendar year into 2 academic terms:

Autumn: usually the last week of September through the middle of January (14 study weeks);

Spring: usually the third week of February to the last week of June (14 study weeks).

Student Selection Criteria

Participating students will be selected by their home institution on the following basis.

The students shall:

- Be citizens or permanent residents of the country of their home university, or hold a valid temporary visa for that country.
- Have completed at least one (1) year of full-time study at the home institution.
- Have good to excellent academic performance records.
- Students, whose first language is not English must meet minimum English language proficiency requirements. Istanbul Medipol University requires a TOEFL-IBT (Home Edition is not accepted) with minimum score of 84, or Cambridge English Advanced with minimum score of B, or Cambridge English Proficiency with minimum score of B, or PTE Academic with minimum score of 71, or Oxford Test of English (All Modules) with minimum score of B2, or IELTS with minimum overall score of 6.5. Students, whose first language is English and/or those, who graduated from high school in the USA, the UK, Canada, Pakistan and Nigeria are exempted from any kind of English language proficiency exam.

Academic Achievements Report

Academic achievement reports will be sent to the student's Home university at the conclusion of each semester, not later than four (4) weeks after the last day of final examinations. This will be achieved through a university transcript.

Tuition and Fees

Any fees, transportation and living expenses, health insurance, medical costs, food and/or any required meal plan, housing, books and other study costs are to be borne by the guest students or their Home institution.

Visa Support Services

Students shall be responsible for obtaining any necessary visas and otherwise complying with all immigration laws and regulations of the country of the Host institution. The Host institution shall cooperate in such efforts, but shall not have any responsibility to assure the granting of any visas, permits or approvals.

The Host institution will reasonably assist incoming exchange students in obtaining visas and other documents required by the Host country government immigration authorities to the extent permitted by law.

Exchange Liaison

Both institutions will provide the name and detailed contact information of the Exchange Liaison who will be responsible for all matters during the student application process, academic counseling, and assisting students upon arrival.
